FINE INDIAN DINING

DINING REDISCOVERED

We Welcome You To Sahebs

Since they first settled in the 1600s, Europeans have been fascinated by the riches of the Indian sub-continent. It was not only tea and jute, but the vast variety of spices and herbs that tempted them to stay so far from home over the centuries.

Inspired by tradition and innovation, our kitchen becomes like a spice market every day, using the great range of herbs and spices which are ground and skilfully blended in the preparation of some of the great classic dishes we offer you in our tempting menu.

We hope you enjoy your meal today and look forward to welcoming you on your return visit to us.
